Update - Resignation of Councillor Cathy Temby

Huon Valley Council CEO Lachie Kranz advises that Councillor Cathy Temby is moving interstate for family reasons and has resigned her position of Councillor, effective from today, 25 January 2024.

Cr Temby said “I would like to thank the Huon Valley Community for the opportunity to serve as Councillor over the last 12 months. It has been a challenging but rewarding experience in terms of our achievements.

“We have a strong team of Councillors led by Mayor Sally Doyle and our new CEO, Lachlan Kranz, who along with the Executive Leadership Team and staff have worked together to provide for the health, safety and welfare of the Community, and to represent and promote the interests of the community.”

Mayor Sally Doyle has thanked Cr Temby for her service.

“On behalf of the community, Councillors and Council staff I want to thank Cathy for her work over many years, including 12 months as a Councillor, dedicated to improving issues like road safety and the environment in the Huon Valley,” Mayor Doyle said.

“We wish Cathy all the best for the future and look forward to her visiting. We now look forward to welcoming a new Councillor following the Tasmanian Electoral Commission recount process.”
