Huon Valley Halls Review Update

The first phase of the consultation on the Halls Review is complete.

14 public workshops were held across the valley with opportunities to submit views via an online portal and the completion of a structured survey.

Huon Valley Mayor Sally Doyle stated, “The team are collating all feedback and identifying key themes. The next step will be for these themes to be provided to the Community for comment. We are working as fast as we can to provide an outcome on this review as it will be used to inform how Council manages halls moving forward.”
